

Contents

- 8 What do we know about the antiquities of the Moscow Kremlin?
N. A. Makarov
- 26 Eastern part of the Kremlin: history and historical topography
A. V. Yaganov, A. V. Engovatova, N. A. Makarov
- 34 Objectives and progress of the excavation
N. A. Makarov, A. V. Engovatova, V. Yu. Koval
- 42 Occupation layers in Ivanovskaya Square
N. A. Makarov, K. I. Panchenko
- 48 Underneath the foundations of the VTsIK Red Army Commander School: Occupation layers and the cemetery in the central part of Chudov monastery
N. A. Makarov, V. Yu. Koval
- 52 The oldest horizons: constructions and occupation layers
N. A. Makarov, A. V. Engovatova, V. Yu. Koval
- 62 The oldest horizons: material culture
V. Yu. Koval, I. E. Zaitseva, R. N. Modin
- 72 The apanage period: material culture and Oriental influences
V. Yu. Koval
- 80 Natural habitats of the environs of Kremlin Hill in the Middle ages
A. S. Aleshinskaya

- 86 Archaeozoological remains from the occupation layer
E. E. Antipina, L. V. Yavorskaia
- 90 Monastery buildings: the remains of the church of the Miracle of Michael the Archangel, galleries and refectory
A. V. Yaganov
- 100 Monastery buildings: the churches of the Annunciation and St. Metropolitan Alexis, 1680–1686
A. V. Yaganov
- 106 Monastery cemetery: funeral rites
A. V. Engovatova, E. E. Vasilieva
- 116 Monastery cemetery: sarcophagi and tombstones
L. A. Belyaev, V. S. Kurmanovsky
- 124 Headdress from Chudov monastery's cemetery: the volosnik
A. V. Engovatova
- 130 Moscow nobility: from the anthropological finds in Chudov monastery's cemetery
M. V. Dobrovol'skaya
- 138 Chudov monastery's cemetery: the food
Moscow nobles ate in the light of isotope analysis
A. V. Engovatova
- 144 Maly Nikolaevsky Palace
A. V. Engovatova, A. V. Yaganov
- 150 Conclusion
N. A. Makarov
- 160 Bibliography
- 162 Terminology